“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations”

Matthew 28:19-20

BRET NAZWORTH

In Matthew 28:19, Christ commanded his followers to “make disciples of all the nations.” The command literally reads “make all the nations disciples.” We often break this command into two separate clauses, making our focus either on making disciples or on all the nations. But although disciple-making on a local level is intrinsic to the Lord’s commission, it shouldn’t stop there. Christ’s desire from the very beginning of the church has been disciple-making on a world-wide level. This requires either personally going forth or participating in the sending forth others .

For “whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!” Romans 10:13-15

This is what gets a disciple-maker up and going each morning with renewed determination and energy. Every person who recognizes the important task of making disciple-makers lives intentionally. Just this last week I conversed with two ladies from two different states. Both of them have been trained by DM2 and both expressed this same sentiment. They are excited that they now have something tangible to do and they cannot wait to get it out to others. When disciple-making is taught scripturally, people get it and they get in the game. This is happening the world over.

Sometimes we hear encouraging comments from people not directly involved with DM2 but who are using our materials. Here is one such quote taken from an email I recently received from a sister in Christ: “I will be using the Romans study in the Episcopal Church... I did Romans a few years ago, and it is time to do it again. I was asked to teach and have been the only Bible teacher over all this time. This is such an opportunity to clarify the Gospel in a church where the truth can get lost amidst the ritual, and therefore must constantly be emphasized and reaffirmed.” This is God’s way of honoring His Word in the hands of His faithful servant.

FROM TOMMY NORTHCOTT:

Sierra Leone

I cannot thank the Lord enough for the recent trip to Sierra Leone. If the Lord was not glorified in any other way as a result of the conference, I know that my personal spiritual life has improved through the learning and teaching of the Word of God through the DM2 material. I have a renewed motivation for service to the Lord after witnessing first hand His method at work in Sierra Leone. His Word is truly alive and powerful and at work in the lives of many faithful men and women who attended the workshop. Seeing the attendees' hunger for God's Word each day was a motivation to teach while I was there and continues to motivate me to learn in preparation for going back. It is amazing to see the different ways the Lord brings joy to our life as we are blessed with the opportunity to serve Him.

The conference included a combination of our core group - who have all made the choice to become disciple-makers and see the course through to the end - as well as a few eager new faces, who all seemed very excited to catch up on the conferences they have missed so that they can continue on with future conferences. The first few days were dedicated to teaching the Making Disciple-Makers curriculum, which was very well received by the attendees. Many expressed their appreciation for learning the Biblical method for making disciples. They were especially thankful to know that all we need to effectively make a disciple is the Word of God and the Holy Spirit. The best thing is that this course re-emphasizes what the Gospel is and what the Gospel is not so that the Gospel message is clearly taught.

The next three days were spent teaching the Romans 9-16 curriculum which helped clear up some misunderstandings concerning God's past, present, and future dealings with Israel, as well as some of the church's responsibilities in this present time. The curriculum also cleared up several false teachings that are popular in Sierra Leone and supported the truth with plenty of Scriptural evidence they can take back to their churches.

I am very pleased with the work the Lord is doing in Sierra Leone and feel overwhelmingly privileged that the Lord has allowed me to serve Him in this capacity. I cannot wait until I am able to return to continue to help this core group move through the DM2 program and watch how the Lord uses these faithful men and women. Pray they will stand firm in the truth while being bombarded with false religions and that the Lord will continue to provide the resources needed to allow DM2 to continue to take this Biblical model of making disciple-makers to the wonderful country of Sierra Leone.

Teaching the Word of God

FROM LARRY DEPUE:

Zambia

For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation... Romans 1:16

Thank you for praying for our recent teaching trip to Zambia. The Bible is true when it says the effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man avails much. It was evident throughout our trip that God was leading and in control.

For starters, because of flight delays and mechanical problems, I arrived at the Dallas/Fort Worth airport 10 minutes after my flight to Frankfurt, Germany was scheduled to leave. Amazingly, the Lord caused strong head winds to delay the arrival of our plane coming from Germany. So, even though I arrived late, I still had 35 minutes to make it to my gate! When I arrived with only minutes to spare, Bret's comment was, "That was a real nail biter!"

Off we went to Frankfurt, Germany, then on to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, then to Lusaka, Zambia. From Lusaka we boarded a small mission plane to Kasama in northern Zambia. Kasama is around 600 miles from Lusaka and takes a full 3 hours in a Cessna 206 to arrive. We arrived in Kasama jetlagged.

The next morning, by God's grace, we began the workshop. Each day we taught 8 to 9 hours. The meetings were well-attended. There were 130 students present. Most of them were pastors and church leaders who had been with us in October. We taught the Making Disciple-Makers manual first. The emphasis was on 2 Timothy 2:2 with the idea of teaching faithful men who will in turn teach others also. That material was well received. Next, we taught verse by verse through Romans 1 to 8. This material was a repeat for some of the students, but we all felt it was very necessary as Satan has brought so much confusion concerning the Gospel. Romans chapters 1 to 5 allowed us to very clearly focus on the Gospel message. Remarkably, the Holy Spirit opened the eyes of many to the truth. Thank you for praying! Continue to pray for those who attended to now go forth and teach others. Some of them have already been using the materials we left the last trip and are carefully teaching in their churches. To God be the glory.

TESTIMONIES OF GOD'S GRACE

Pastor Chris Mwango

I was very impressed with the way Romans was handled and expressed and how many deeper truths that I have never understood were explained. The presentations were just superb. It was just incredible.

Pastor Mukupa

I was impressed with the clarity of the teachings of Romans and the discipleship manual. It was not easy attending this workshop, but I learned great truth from the wonderful presentations.

Pastor Joseph Moshe

It was an exciting time for me to learn things I could say were new insights from the book of Romans. Also, I have heard teaching on discipleship, but not as given in DM2's presentations. They were just unique and different. I was really impressed, and I am itching to implement this teaching by training others using the same materials.
