MAY 4-14: SIERRA LEONE, AFRICA ROMANS 1-8 CONFERENCE RESPONSES

I was very impressed with the openness and eagerness of the pastors attending the conference. I was shocked by how many of them expressed a genuine appreciation of the truth due to a lifetime of being enslaved by error. I was pleasantly surprised by the comments of some of the pastors who said the conference was "too short."

—John Clark, Pastor and DM2 board member

The joy of God is evident and observable in Sierra Leone. I have never seen such hunger for the Word of God and the pure joy that it brings. The power of the Gospel was seen in the eyes of the students attending the May conference.

—Robert Ferow, Pastor

This conference was an eye-opener to me. Now I know that salvation is not gained by my human effort, but by the finished work of Jesus Christ on the cross. Now I have peace with God for my salvation is permanent in Him. I intend to make this truth known to many, starting with my family and my church.

—Joseph Allen, Pastor, Agepa Way Ministries

The conference was a blessing in my life in many ways because it helped me know that I should not operate in the sin nature but in the new nature. It helped me know that I am not saved by my works but by his grace. I have been saved through Christ who paid the price for my redemption. I am going to start on the foundation with my family and friends.

—Hinga Tergbeh, Christ Kingdom Church

The truth is that this conference was really a blessing to my life. This conference gave so much insight into my understanding about how guaranteed my salvation is. My knowledge about the Gospel, and even the aspect of the believers sanctification (knowing that the old sin nature has been made powerless and I have obtained a new position which is in Christ and have been made dead to sin) was a tremendous blessing to me.

—Howard Kal-Parker

I learned so much that I can apply to my personal spiritual life and my day to day walking with God. Some of the things which challenged me are that I am dead to sin and should not continue to walk in sin, and that I am who I am in Christ because of the grace of God in my life. In that same way I have to live life dependent on God the Holy Spirit through faith.

—Eleanor Lusenie, Grace Centre Bible Church

WILLING LABORERS BY: BRET NAZWORTH

God is doing amazing things around the world; we are blessed to be a part.

As I write this article, I am busy preparing for the Panorama of the Old Testament conference in Bolivia. What went into making this trip possible? A myriad of particulars had to be worked out. Tickets, passports, visas, and vaccinations for each team member had to all be acquired. Equipment and appropriate books had to be purchased. One of the most crucial components was the development and translation of curriculum. Student outlines and PowerPoint presentations also had to be created.

Each of these details takes effort and preparation. As God opens doors to more and more fields, we are greatly encouraged by believers who willingly provide resources to see disciple makers multiplied around the world!

In Bolivia we will be teaching the Panorama of the Old Testament curriculum developed by Pastor Clay Ward. A sister in Christ in Santiago (the capital of Chile) freely gave of her time to translate all 175 pages of this curriculum into Spanish! Many others provided financially to make the trip possible.

Last week, Robert Ferow, John Clark, and I returned from an exhilarating workshop in Sierra Leone, Africa. There is nothing like hungry — truly hungry — leaders who, above all else, desire to be taught the Word of God. The men and women who attended this conference waited eagerly to get us out of bed each morning for another long day of teaching.

Between the Africa and Bolivia trips, we had a quick Romans 1-8 workshop here in Tennessee. This workshop was aimed at preparing our two newest Regional Ministry Directors, Carlos Tellez and Brad Rigby, for teaching Romans.

Carlos and Amy Tellez are our newest DM2 members. Carlos will be focusing on the Spanish speaking people of the US and Latin America. Brad Rigby is working with us by-vocationally. He is our Regional Ministry Director for North Africa. While working full-time, Brad is coordinating the translation of all our materials into Arabic, along with fully organizing the workshops in North Africa. This is no small matter, and we ask for much prayer. Besides the spiritual conflict we face, the language, distance, and political situation make Brad's job a great challenge.

We are so thankful to God for providing willing laborers. Continue to pray for us. Thank you for your part!

"For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves report about us what kind of a reception we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, that is Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath to come."

1 Thessalonians 1:8-10

OPEN DOOR: MEXICO

Eliseo Valeriano, Bolivian Pastor

I wanted to let you know that in March I was in Mexico. During my stay there, I met precious brothers and sisters from a church in our denomination. Through these people, we are making contacts to initiate a workshop in Mexico. I spoke to Pastor Roberto (DM2 Bolivia Field Director) concerning this, and he really wants to go. I am communicating with a leader from the church in Mexico (Cosme Sanchez) who proved to be very interested in the workshop. We are simply waiting on specifics concerning dates and participants. Let's hope that the doors open to initiate this new location for Bible teaching.

FROM BOLIVIA: The Robinsons

The trip down to Bolivia was good but difficult. When we arrived in Bolivia in the wee hours of the morning, Aydon and Emma were extremely tired, and it was very hot. We were trusting God to carry us through, and a friendly worker gathered all our luggage, then moved us to the front of the line, "por los niños" (for the kids).

We rode up to Mairana the next day. Mairana is a three hour drive from Santa Cruz. The drive was beautiful, but getting into the mountains the road winds and twists. Without seatbelts and car seats you can imagine how we got tossed around in the car. I won't mention all the times our driver decided to pass giant semis as we were going around hairpin turns with steep (though breathtakingly beautiful) drop-offs on either side.

We are running a small church for the Sommers (the missionaries whose house we are staying in while they are on furlough) each Sunday and Wednesday night. The people are laid back and friendly. Aydon really likes the church group. He greeted everyone with "buenos dias" on Wednesday night.

In Santa Cruz we met a man who helps people secure their visas. He knew exactly what papers and pictures we needed. He will give us a card in a few weeks confirming that we have applied for our visas, so we are good to stay here for one year! Praise God!

JOINING DM2: Tellez Family

Carlos Tellez knew that one day God would open the door for him to teach sound biblical doctrine to fellow Spanish-speaking believers. After nearly ten years of waiting upon the Lord, this door has been opened through DM2!

Carlos grew up in Colombia, South America. He finished his Bachelor's degree in business administration, but knew he was being called into full time ministry from the day of his salvation. The Lord miraculously opened a door for him to come to the US to study English and get a Master's degree in Bible Exposition. Sound Bible teaching and training are not available to many Latin American Christians, so Carlos' dream since graduating has been to teach and disciple pastors and church leaders on an advanced level.

Carlos and his wife Amy live in Charlotte, NC with their three children, Caleb (9), Noah (7) and Grace (4). The mission field has been on their hearts for a long time, and finally God has led them to a mission organization that is like-minded in all aspects.

Please pray that the Lord will finalize opening doors for teaching in the US very soon and build their support partners in a timely manner. If you would like to support the Tellez family's new ministry in any way, contact them at CarlosTellezDM2@gmail.com or (704) 519-9412.
