Dr. Clay Ward
The Encouragement of God's Wrath

Although the title may sound strange, this is the response Tommy Northcott and I witnessed when we taught the intense judgment sections of Revelation chapters 12-19 to a core group of church leaders in Sierra Leone this past February.

In the spring of 2017 when we taught Revelation 1-11, we learned that many of our Sierra Leonean disciple-makers declined to study or teach the book of Revelation for fear of misunderstanding it. However, since the book comes with a blessing for reading, hearing and heeding its contents (Rev. 1:3), we showed them how to understand the prophecies in it through a literal, historical and grammatical method of Bible study.

Throughout the course of the week, we took the opportunity to reinforce the true grace gospel, the faith-dependent Christian life and the assurance we have of not facing the wrath of God because of our eternally secure position in Christ.

God's ultimate triumph and the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who is coming quickly (Rev. 22:12-13).

Tommy and I continue to stand amazed at God's faithfulness to encourage, exhort and equip, simply through the clear teaching of His Word. God honors His Word and He honors His method of teaching faithful people who will be able to teach others also (2 Tim. 2:2), which is being accomplished through DM2.

God is at work in Sierra Leone

The first week in February was marked by God's grace as Dr. Clay Ward and I were able to teach the second half of the DM2 Revelation material to our core group of church leaders in Sierra Leone.

Despite the fact that several men face persecution in their home towns, they are standing firm in the truth, even to the point, for some, of being forced out of their churches. As they themselves have begun to lead Bible studies, they have become strengthened in their faith.

While we were there we could feel the tension building as the country approached the March presidential election. The unbelievers took part in different pagan rituals intended to help the candidate of their choice gain the victory. Many of these activities were violent and posed challenges for believers who desire to follow God's Word. Please continue to pray for the country of Sierra Leone. Pray the elections will not result in violence or civil unrest so that God's Word can continue to go forward to the various communities in the country.

However, even in the midst of these tensions, two weeks after our February conference, the DM2 core group traveled to the city of Kono to take a new group through the systematic study of God's Word. This is just one of several trips these men have planned over the next few months all over the country.
